Thanks Valois,

So, the Cadmus list is a subset of Lucita's table, that was used to generate your table? Seems like Cadmus missed a lot if the volume went from their 12 pages to your 55 pages (with both excluding Powertech and OST's most recent).

Any need for me to review the Cadmus 12 pages?

Thanks, Kimi

Hi Kimi,

I had to satisfy my curiosity about the 12 page document. It was the list of comments Cadmus identified as EJ comments, but didn't include comments Lucita flagged as EJ-related, Powertech's EJ comments and the OST's most recent EJ comments.
